

Prompt 01: State-Specific Divorce Law & Procedure

Use when you need accurate, jurisdiction-specific rules, timelines, and standards.

Template: State Divorce Law Deep Dive

PROMPT: You are an expert family law attorney licensed in [STATE].

Explain how divorce works in [STATE] for someone in my situation.

My details:

- County: [County, if relevant]
- Length of marriage: [X years]
- Children: [Yes/No - ages if yes]
- Assets involved: [home, retirement, business, debt, etc.]
- Divorce type: [contested / uncontested / unknown]

Answer clearly:

- 1) Grounds for divorce and required filings
- 2) Property division rules (equitable vs community)
- 3) How income is defined and calculated
- 4) Maintenance / alimony standards and formulas
- 5) Child-related standards (if applicable)
- 6) Typical timelines and pressure points
- 7) Common mistakes people make in this state
- 8) What judges in this state tend to care about most

Avoid generic advice. Be specific to [STATE].

Prompt 02: Legal Document Translator

Use when you're reading orders, motions, MSAs, or attorney emails.

Template: Plain-English Decoder

PROMPT: Translate the following divorce-related language into plain English.

Explain:

- What this actually means
- What I am required to do
- What happens if I do nothing
- What leverage the other side may be using
- Any deadlines or hidden risks

Here is the text:

[Paste document excerpt]

Assume I am not a lawyer. Be direct and practical.

Prompt 03: Case Strategy Analysis

Use when your case feels unique, unfair, or high-conflict.

Template: Strategic Situation Review

PROMPT: Act as a strategic divorce advisor with experience in high-conflict cases.

Here is my situation:

- State: [STATE]
- My role: [primary earner / caregiver / both]
- Opposing party behavior: [cooperative / evasive / abusive / manipulative]
- Key issues: [money, custody, control, delay, retaliation]
- My biggest risks: [financial ruin, loss of parenting time, exhaustion]
- My constraints: [limited money, bad prior counsel, time pressure]

Analyze:

- 1) My strongest leverage points
- 2) My weakest vulnerabilities
- 3) What the other side is likely trying to achieve
- 4) Where judges typically lose patience
- 5) Actions that improve my position without escalating conflict
- 6) Actions that would quietly damage my case

Focus on realism, not optimism.

Prompt 04: Divorce Financial Defense

Use when money, hidden income, or financial manipulation is involved.

Template: Financial Protection Map

PROMPT: You are a forensic-minded divorce financial analyst.

Help me understand and protect my financial position.

Facts:

- State: [STATE]
- Income (me / spouse): [numbers or ranges]
- Known assets: [list]
- Known debts: [list]
- Suspected issues: [hidden income, dissipation, fraud, control]

I want:

- 1) Red flags I should look for in financial records
- 2) Questions my attorney should be asking
- 3) Documents that matter most
- 4) How courts in my state view financial misconduct
- 5) What creates credibility vs suspicion
- 6) What NOT to do with money right now

Do not assume goodwill from the other side.

Prompt 05: Strategic Positioning

Gain procedural and psychological advantage without escalation.

Template: Process Position Coach

PROMPT: Act as a divorce strategist focused on positioning and leverage.

Context:

- State: [STATE]
- Stage of divorce: [pre-filing / discovery / mediation / trial / post-judgment]
- Opposing tactics: [delay, intimidation, over-lawyering, stonewalling]
- My goal: [stability, speed, fairness, protection]

Advise on:

- 1) How to present as reasonable and credible
- 2) How to avoid reactive mistakes
- 3) What pressure points exist at this stage
- 4) How timing affects outcomes
- 5) When silence is stronger than response

Prompt 06: Attorney Performance Audit

Use if you suspect your lawyer is passive, overwhelmed, or misaligned.

Template: Counsel Effectiveness Check

PROMPT: Evaluate my divorce attorney's performance objectively.

Facts:

- State: [STATE]
- Retainer paid: [amount]
- What I asked them to do: [list]
- What they actually did: [list]
- What feels wrong or missing: [describe]

Tell me:

- 1) What competent counsel should be doing at this stage
- 2) Whether delays or inaction are normal or harmful
- 3) Questions I should ask directly
- 4) Warning signs of negligence or misalignment
- 5) Whether switching counsel would help or hurt right now

Be blunt.

Prompt 07: Decision Framing Under Stress

Use when everything feels urgent and overwhelming.

Template: Divorce Decision Filter

PROMPT: Help me evaluate a divorce-related decision rationally.

Decision I'm facing: [describe the choice]

Constraints:

- Time pressure: [yes/no]
- Financial pressure: [yes/no]
- Emotional pressure: [yes/no]

Analyze:

- 1) Best-case outcome
- 2) Worst-case outcome
- 3) Most likely outcome
- 4) Irreversible risks
- 5) What I'll regret in 2 years if I choose wrong
- 6) Which option preserves optionality

Assume I am exhausted and need clarity.

Prompt 08: Court-Safe Narrative Builder

Use to stay calm, credible, and consistent.

Template: Narrative Control

PROMPT: Help me articulate my position clearly and credibly.

Audience: [judge / mediator / attorney / evaluator]

Facts I want included: [list factual points only]

Help me:

- 1) Remove emotional language
- 2) Focus on outcomes and stability
- 3) Avoid sounding defensive or aggressive
- 4) Frame concerns as practical, not personal
- 5) Maintain consistency across filings and communication

Prompt 09: Guardian ad Litem Summary

Clarify parenting information for evaluators without drama.

Template: GAL Brief

PROMPT: Condense my anonymized parenting summary for a guardian ad litem.

Structure as Context, Observations, and Requests with factual language only.

Prompt 10: Hearing Prep Brief

Outline fast talking points before temporary-order hearings.

Template: Courtroom Checklist

PROMPT: Act as a courtroom coach and outline the arguments I need.

Focus on material changes since filing, financial needs, child stability, and exhibit references.

Deliver a numbered checklist I can rehearse with counsel.

Prompt 11: Statement Reconciliation

Use to analyze bank or credit statements for red flags.

Template: Transaction Audit

PROMPT: Compare two statements and highlight unexplained withdrawals or transfers.

Return a table with date, amount, possible explanation, and follow-up questions.

Warn me to verify against official records before alleging misconduct.

Prompt 12: Attorney Meeting Agenda

Stay efficient when face-time with counsel is limited.

Template: Strategy Agenda

PROMPT: Turn my bullet list into a time-boxed agenda for the next attorney meeting.

Include sections for discovery blockers, financial tasks, settlement signals, and emotional check-ins.

Add a column for materials to bring.

Prompt 13: Relocation Impact Analysis

Evaluate how moves affect parenting plans.

Template: Custody Logistics Matrix

PROMPT: Assess how a proposed relocation changes schedules, costs, and child stability.

Present a matrix comparing current vs proposed plan with travel time, cost sharing, schooling, and virtual visitation.

Remind me that relocation typically requires court approval.

Prompt 14: Resilience Game Plan

Keep yourself regulated while court deadlines loom.

Template: Weekly Stabilizer

PROMPT: Create a weekly self-care and clarity plan aligned with my deadlines.
Include micro-actions for sleep, therapy, financial review, and support network touchpoints.
Encourage involving licensed mental-health professionals when needed.

Prompt 15: Motion Draft Architect

Use when you need to draft motions, petitions, or responses quickly.

Template: Court Filing Builder

PROMPT: Act as a family-law paralegal who drafts persuasive filings.

My filing type: [motion / petition / response]

Issue: [describe relief sought or opposed]

Key facts: [bullet list]

Applicable orders/statutes: [cite if known]

Deliver:

- 1) Suggested heading and caption language
- 2) Intro paragraph framing the request
- 3) Numbered factual background
- 4) Argument outline with authorities to confirm
- 5) Proposed relief section

Flag areas that must be verified by licensed counsel before filing.

Prompt 16: Petition Storyboard

Organize initial pleadings or amended petitions.

Template: Pleading Blueprint

PROMPT: Help me outline the structure of a divorce petition or counter-petition.

Inputs:

- State: [STATE]
- Filing posture: [original / counter / amended]
- Relief requested: [custody, support, property, protection orders, etc.]

Provide:

- 1) Section-by-section summary with headings
- 2) Facts to highlight for jurisdiction and grounds
- 3) Clauses that preserve future claims
- 4) Exhibits or verifications typically attached
- 5) Checklist of signatures and notarizations required

Note: remind me to have a licensed attorney review before submission.

Prompt 17: Response & Objection Coach

Use when replying to motions, discovery, or settlement demands.

Template: Rebuttal Draft

PROMPT: Act as a litigation strategist writing a well-structured response.

Context:

- Filing I'm responding to: [describe]
- Deadlines or hearing dates: [list]
- Key misstatements to correct: [bullet list]
- Evidence I have: [documents, witnesses, financial records]

Deliver:

- 1) Short theme framing why the request should be denied or modified
- 2) Point-by-point rebuttal outline
- 3) Evidence chart (cite + relevance)
- 4) Optional settlement language if compromise is acceptable
- 5) Tone guidance (firm, neutral, conciliatory)

Highlight any deadlines I mentioned.

Prompt 18: Support Modification Readiness

Evaluate whether income changes justify a review.

Template: Support Delta Analyzer

PROMPT: Act as a child-support researcher assessing modification potential.

Inputs: income changes, % difference, and documentation on hand.

Return pros/cons table, evidence list, and timing considerations for my state.

Prompt 19: Narrative Decision Filter

Keep communications calm and credible.

Template: Narrative Control

PROMPT: Help me rewrite this statement to sound reasonable and outcome-focused.

Audience: [judge / mediator / evaluator / attorney]

Raw text: [paste draft]

Return a polished version plus bullet list of the key themes it conveys.
